MISS LYDIA A JORDON DEAD

At Age of 64 She Answers The Final Summons With a Smile on Her Face.

A PRESBYTERIAN FOR 52 YEARS.

Gaston, Ky., March 29.—On the morning of March 27, Lydia A. Jordan passed away, aged 64 years, 4 months and 13 days. She had been in feeble health for more than two years and had been confined to her bed since Dec. 15 1905. The deceased, paragon of the nerves. Her aged father, (Uncle Joel) two brothers and four sisters remain to miss the sweet presence and her gentle influence.

Her devotion to these loved ones was ideal. Being a dutiful daughter and sister, she was always kind, gentle true and patient.

At the age of twelve years she united with the Presbyterian church. Religion was to her a reality and death had no terrors, but was a sweet going home to the Father's house.

The funeral services were held at the home and conducted by Rev. Roe whose earnest words not only comforted the bereaved but gave timely admonition to all who heard him. A large gathering of friends showed their appreciation of her whose remains were interred in the family grave yard on Wednesday, March 28.

UNION PRAYER MEETING.

The Union temperance and prayer meeting was held at the Baptist church last Wednesday night, led by Capt. John Burn with an interesting and strong talk. A good attendance was had. Committees representing all the churches and the two young people's societies were named to collect money for campaign purposes. Quite a little some has already been voluntarily subscribed and it is thought that no trouble will be had in raising all the money necessary.

Several speakers were arranged for throughout the time before election. Prof. H. K. Taylor will make a temperance lecture to-morrow night.

The union meeting tonight at the Methodist church will be led by the Rev. Currie. The Rev. puts his best into his talks at these meetings and a large audience should greet him tonight.

Mrs. J. Hanks, of Holt, was here last week.

BANK CASHIER ALLEGED SHORT

Est. H. W. Noel has resigned as cashier of the Stanley Deposit bank, and his resignation has been accepted. E. L. Miles, president of the bank, admits that there is a discrepancy in the bank books, but declines to state the amount. This is variously estimated, however, from $5,000 to $15,000. No information could be obtained last night as to when the shortage began to occur, although indications are that some persons connected with the institution began to suspect some time ago that things were not entirely as they should be.—Owensboro Messenger.

Hear Taylor on temperance tomorrow night at the O'Leary's Hall.

SAM VALUED AT $10,000.

The $10,000 damage suit brought against the Henderson Route for the death of Sam Jewell, the Cloverport negro who was run over and killed by the work train at the gravel pit a few weeks ago, was continued on account of the absence of Attorney R. A. Miller, who is sick at Owensboro.—Clarion.

The Biggie Cow Book.

Farmers are getting from their cows better milk and butter than ever before, and with more "know how" some of them are getting gallons where they used to get pails. There is no better hand-book on the cow than the Biggie Cow Book, published by the people who own the well-known Farm Journal. It tells all about the cow, how to raise her, what to feed, how to get the most and most milk, and what to do if she gets sick. Nobody with a single cow can afford to do without this big little book, and it is complete enough for the largest dairy. Eight of the principal breeds of cattle are illustrated in colors, and there are more than 150 other illustrations from photographs and drawings. A new edition (27th thousand) of the Cow Book has just been printed, and is for sale at the regular rate, 50 cents, free by mail. Address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

Roscoe Severs, of Richmond, Va., who has for many years been connected as a civil engineer with the C. & O. R. R. Co., has resigned his position and will become a contractor, this being more responsible and lucrative employment. Severs graduated from State College and has shown marked ability in his work since his entrance into the engineering world.

R. H. ALLEN IS DEAD

Peacefully His Life Goes Out At Age Of 64—Caused By Heart Trouble.

WAS A DEVOUT CHRISTIAN.

The death of Robert H. Allen on Wednesday night was appalling in its suddenness and the incident cast a gloom over all. Mr. Allen lived alone at his blacksmith shop on the road leading up the mill. On the night before he had attended prayer meeting and conversed freely with all; there was not the slightest complaint of ill health. The next morning a neighbor attempted to arouse him, when the terrible truth of his death was discovered. He lay peacefully in his bed; the cover was not disturbed, his overcoat was drawn over his feet. Not a sign of struggle could be found, and his lifeless body lay cold in the grasp of the great king, the features remarkably even and natural. During the night and while in sleep, the summons came. What a peaceful, pleasant and desirable ending!

A lady under the direction of the coroner viewed the remains and rendered a verdict that heart failure had carried Mr. Allen away. He was not subject to the complaint, but on one former occasion had experienced a smothering spell. The gentleman were borne to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sam Mason, Jr., and on Friday at 2:30 the burial occurred from the M. E. church Rev. B. F. Lawhorn conducting the services. The burial was in Hawesville cemetery.

Robert H. Allen was 64 years old. Some time in 1894 he served a term as sheriff of Hancock county. His wife preceded him to the grave by many years, and he was left with seven children. Two of them—Will and Frank—since died. There now remains five children—Mrs. Fred Haering, of Owensboro; and Mrs. Sam Mason, Jr., Mrs. Orpha Mason, and Messrs. Roy and Harvey Allen of this city.

In point of veracity and general information, Bob Allen had few equals. He was well read, brilliant conversationalist, a lover of music, stage critic, and an entertainer of the highest type. He was as harmless as a child, and hated or envied no one; found lodgment in his heart. He was a lover of church services and for three months had not missed a sermon, a prayer meeting or a song service, being himself a leading member of the choir. He was a member of the Methodist church and his pastor tells us the last few months of his life were especially devoted to religious thought and action having read the New Testament through in that time.—Clarion.

MURDER AT HUDSONVILLE.

Hudsonville, Ky., April 3.—Last Wednesday morning John A. Coke, who lived 2 miles south of Hudsonville, was found dead in his back yard by P. M. Tucker, one of the tenants on his place. He had been shot in the breast with a shot gun and had apparently died instantaneously. Mr. Coke was a bachelor about 60 years old and lived by himself. He was a man who kept a good deal of money about his person and in his house, and murder and robbery were at once suspected. Blood hounds were procured at White Mills, Harlan county, and as a result of their tracking four men have been arrested and are now in the county jail charged with murder. They are Neil Holman, Frank Whitworth, Henry Nichols and Robert Clark. While some people think the accused are guilty, it is but fair to them to say that they declare their innocence and many believe their statements. The deputy sheriff Arthur Beaud is now in that neighborhood and it is said other arrests will be made. The house of the murdered man arrived Friday and the funeral took place Saturday. The examining trial of the accused men will take place next Monday. Brown & Murray represent the prosecution and Mercer & Mercer have been retained by the defense.

Mr. Coke was an industrious, quiet citizen and a good man and neighbor, and his murder has thoroughly aroused the people in that portion of the county, and they are determined that the guilty parties shall be discovered and punished.

SENATOR BECK-HAM IT MAY BE.

Governor Beckham, it is alleged, will shortly announce his candidacy for United States senator. This declaration has been made by one of the closest friends of the governor. No formal announcement is expected, but he proposes to let his friends know he is in the race. Senator McCreary will no doubt be a candidate for re-election, as he has held the office for only one term.

Hear Taylor tomorrow night on 10th person at the O'Leary's Hall. Ernest Robertson, of Glendene, was in the city Friday.

THE CHAS. BOHLER PETITION IN FULL.

Cloverport, Ky., March 28, 1906.
To the Hon. Judge and Members of the Fiscal Court of Breckenridge County, Ky.

Gentlemen:
We, the undersigned, citizens of Cloverport Magisterial District, hereby petition your honorable body that you instruct the man appointed by you as supervisor of the Public Roads of Breckenridge County, that it is our wish that Chas. W. Bohler, be appointed Supervisor, for this, the Cloverport Magisterial District. To our personal knowledge, Mr. Bohler is an experienced road man, well qualified for this place.

We trust that the County Superior will grant our demands in their appointment for a supervisor in this district, and we feel that we would be doing a great injustice in their appointment of an inexperienced man.

DESTROYING TOBACCO PLANTS A FELONY.

Among the laws recently enacted by the Kentucky Legislature in the interest of the farmers, says the Bourbon News, was an act making it a felony to steal Tobacco plants. To rob a Tobacco bed of its plants, and otherwise destroy the owner's chance of growing a crop of Tobacco, has become common in some counties of the Tobacco growing districts, and has frequently occurred in Bourbon County. It sometimes causes a great loss to the farmer, being compelled to grow a less remunerative crop. Legislation of this kind is what is needed.

IT IS NOW "EDMUND WROE, ATTORNEY AT LAW."

Mr. Edmund Wroe was in Hawesville last week taking an examination to be admitted to the bar. He stood the test before ten attorneys and the court room filled with two hundred people. Mr. Wroe passed a most successful examination. He now has license to practice law in all the courts of Kentucky. However, Mr. Wroe intends to teach another year in the public school here before he enters fully into his profession. He expects to practice during vacations until that time. The News wishes young Wroe bountiful success wherever he may decide to hang out his shingle.

H. L. STADER A LOYAL WORKER

For Good Roads--Spends Lot of His Time as Well as Money
In The Work.

J. A. BARRY, ALSO LOYAL.

After a search of Breckenridge county from Chenoaut to Pitt Ashby's farm it would be hard to find two men who have worked and are working harder for good roads than Mr. H. L. Stader and Mr. John A. Barry of Cloverport. While here in Cloverport can be found perhaps more men who are working harder in the good roads movement than any other town or village in Breckenridge. It would be hard to single out two men who have spent as much time and money in the movement as have the two gentlemen named above. W. H. Bowmer, Jno. D. Babage, Chas. Bohler and many other Cloverporters are showing much interest in the movement for better roads.

Stader was busy all last week circulating a petition to present to the Fiscal court which convenes at Hardinsburg this week, petitioning that body to appoint Mr. Chas. Bohler, a really practical road man, to the place of Supervisor for the Cloverport district. The Democratic machine, has already decided who Cloverport wants for a supervisor, but somehow the selection is not altogether agreeable to the wishes of the majority of the voters here. It is all-got the appointment has been promised to a certain highly respected man as a reward for political work done before the election. While the people think it is just and right that a man should be paid for his honest endeavors, it is hard for the Cloverport district tax payers to see why a man should be paid with their money for work that has not benefited them to any great extent. The man who the gang has promised the appointment too, is said to know but very little about road building and this is why another man is wanted in his stead.

Mr. Chas. Bohler's ability to build and maintain roads has long been demonstrated. Several years since he had charge of the roads in this district and the results of his labor can be seen to day, although four or five years have elapsed in the meantime. The famous Allen hill about a mile from town was macadamized by Mr. Bohler and the result is known to everybody acquainted with the highway. If Mr. Bohler had been left in charge of the road work and not displaced by politicians, as was done, Cloverport would today be the proud possessor of a pike to Balltown. This may seem a very broad and abstract statement but it is not. To road all the way was graded and ready for rock when Mr. Bohler was displaced. He was in the act of macadamizing it when a political gang lynched his plans. The town had bought a rock crusher and was doing a great deal in the movement. Nearly every citizen was stirred up for better roads and the dream of the future was bright. But here came the cry for less taxes. "Cut down expenses," "Bohler is spending too much money." This is what the parties seeking county offices cried. Our plans were thwarted, Bohler was displaced, the road was thrown into the hands of men who and believed that political work and now the results. What is it? A disgraceful condition of the roads leading out of Cloverport.

To put Chas. Bohler in as our road supervisor will mean good roads for us. To leave him out will mean the same or worse than we now have. This is the reason every man in the district is signing the Bohler petition as it is presented to him. If the gang at Harding, is left to run our roads. Cloverport will have no roads. Its appointment will be shaken from the political plim tree as compensation for political debts. The people have said they will not have this, and if Tom Moore does over-ride the people's will and place incompetent men in road offices, there will be an uprising among Cloverporters that will not have its ending with its beginning. Some body will pay the penalty. This is the popular sentiment in Cloverport.

Nearly every citizen in the city, even to an individual wants Chas. Bohler appointed Road Supervisor of the Cloverport district.

WILL FILE LIBEL SUIT.

Hartford, Ky., March 28.—It is announced here this afternoon that suits are being prepared by counsel for County Attorney Woodward and County Superintendent Deweese against the Inquirer and the Owensboro Messenger for alleged libel. The charge is made that in accounts of the death of Miss Pradie Ford and the circumstances leading up to it, statements were made which were false and libelous and calculated to injure the plaintiffs.

The suits are being prepared by Messrs. H. P. Taylor, J. S. Glenn and Charles Crowe, of the local bar. Two separate suits are being prepared by each of the plaintiffs against the papers named.

The matter at which the plaintiffs are aggrieved is in connection with the statements that the plaintiffs called Miss Ford in and advised her to return the stolen money, and that she afterward committed suicide.

Anti-Lobby Bill Killed

The Anti-Lobby Bill was likewise killed. The need of legislation was felt at the close of the session, Gov. Beckham, referring in unmistakable terms to the presence of lobbies during the last session. Mr. Miller's bill sets forth the only means by which lobbying could be done, required each lobbyist to file his name and his arguments in written form with the Secretary of State, and limited his operations to the committee meeting Bribery by lobbyists was made a felony.

Misses Cornelia Ditto and Lillian Hardin, who have been attending school at Bloomington, Ind., are expected home Thursday.—Meade Messenger.

Tournament Closed.

Louisville, Ky., March 28.—The sixth annual National Tournament of the American Bowling Congress came to a grand close last Tuesday night. The winners in the three classes are C. Fagan, Oskoon, individuals; Hamilton and Hawsey, Philadelphia two-men; Century No. 1, Chicago, five-men.

NERVOUS PEOPLE

Something You Ought to know.

"No nerves and never irritable." This is what our well known druggists Short & Haynes, say people report after taking Vinol. "It is remarkable," said a member of the above firm to the editor of the News, "how many people buy scintillates and all sorts of opiates to quiet and deaden the nerve when they are weakening their entire nervous system by doing so."

"Nerve troubles are easily cured," continued he. "It is simply a case of treating the general weakness, not the nerves alone, and that is just what Vinol does in the most direct and simple manner possible. It once nerve troubles because it builds up, and makes one strong all over. It invigorates the entire nervous system, makes new blood and vitality."

"Vinol contains no drugs, and you know what you are taking—simply the medicinal crutives found in cod liver oil with a little organic iron added. It is fast superseding old forms of cod liver oil and emulsions because it is so delicious to the taste and has such marvellous vitalizing power."

It is for this reason that we say to every nervous, run-down and debilitated person in Cloverport, try Vinol and if it does not cure you come back and get your money.—Short & Haynes, Druggists.

Board of Control to Meet.

Frankfort, Ky., March 28.—The State Board of Control will meet here the first of April for the purpose of organizing and taking over the management of the charitable institutions placed under its care by the act creating each board. It is expected that the Governor will shortly there after appoint an Adjutant General to succeed Gen. Gaty, who is at the head of the new board.

Scarcity of Coal Was Felt Here.

Scarcity of coal was felt here last week and it was reported that parties at Harroville could not get coal at all and were suffering from the want of it. Roads were so bad that coal could not be hauled from the country mines out from town. Twenty-five cars were dispatched here from Fenley mines but only three of them arrived. The Henderson Route has been confiscating nearly every every car that has been mined at Fenley, Baskett and Spottsville mines. The coal was taken up in case the big strike of miners might be declared which would effect the three mines named. Roads running out of Chicago have taken the same action with coal consigned to Chicago from fields in Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia.

Mr. D. Stewart Miller, Sr., was in Indianapolis last week figuring in the effort to settle the threatened strike amicably.

Revise Public Printing Law. Speaker Lawrence last week appointed three members of the Legislative Committee to revise the public printing laws and submit a bill to the subject to the General Assembly of 1908.

Shake off the grip of your old enemy, Nasal Catarrh, by using Ely's Cream Balm. Then will all the swellings and soreness be driven out of the tender, inflamed membranes. The fits of sneezing will cease and the discharge, as offensive to others as to yourself, and acrid and irritating to the nostrils, will be removed. Chamberlain's cold, cough and throat remedy, will restore fort and health renewed by the use of Cream Balm. Sold by all druggists for 50 cents or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

Another Temperance Victory. The Aiken House Bill, increasing the saloon tax from $350 to $1,000 in the State of Ohio, passed the Legislature last week, and cheered from the temperance people.

For a Weak Digestion.

No medicine can replace food but Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will help you to digest your food. It is not the quantity of food taken that gives strength and vigor to the system, but the amount digested and assimilated. If troubled with a weak digestion, don't fail to give these Tablets a trial. Thousands have been benefited by their use. They only cost a quarter. For sale by Short & Haynes, Cloverport.

Truck Garden.

Mr. Chas. Bohler has turned his four acre plot of ground in the west end into a truck garden, with Mr. John Dean as gardener. Mr. Bohler proposes to supply the local market with fresh vegetables throughout the summer. One acre he will plant in strawberries. A truck garden ran on the right scale is what Cloverport needs and it is useless to say that the one question will simply fill the needs of Cloverport under the supervision of Mr. Bohler.

A CREATIVE VOCATION.

It is a Constant Tossle as Well as a Perpetual Delight.

If you want to be contented and happy, if you want to experience a perpetual satisfaction as you go along, choose a creative vocation. A routine life where there is nothing new, nothing special to be learned, is discouraging, paralyzing to ambition, but creative work, which makes a perpetual call upon originality and individuality, is a constant tonic. Nothing gives greater satisfaction than the daily feeling that you have created, that you have brought something new into the world from your brain—something which has taxed your ingenuity and which makes you feel that you have added to the real wealth of the world; that you have not been merely working over what somebody else started or created, but that you have brought something out of the mysterious realm of mind, made it tangible and effective and started a new impulse in the world.

We get closer to nature when we are creating, whether in art, in literature, in invention or in working at new and progressive ideas. We can feel our mind reach out into the vastness of space, bring back something fresh, new, something never seen on this earth before. It is a perpetual delight and a constant satisfaction.

This is why brain workers are longer lived than other people. Creations keep the creator always young, since we are perpetually in contact with the new, the youthful, which is so creating. When we are stretching the mind into the unknown and calling out something new we seem to touch hands with the Creator himself. We are creating. People who never think or do anything original—mere automatons, cogs in the wheels of the great world's machinery, the mere routinists, do not know the exhilaration which comes from the consciousness of creating something new and fresh every day. The creator feels that he is accomplishing something worth while; that he is doing something which the world needs, which will make it a little better place to live in, and the very newness, the novelty, the mystery of creation, makes it the most fascinating thing in the world.—Orison Sweet Marden in Success Magazine.

Heart Burial.

The body of Louis IX., after his death at Carthage in 1270, is related to have been boiled in wine and water in order to preserve it for transportation, and it was then shipped by Charles of Anjou (I.) to Sicily. Here the flesh and viscera were deposited in the Benedictine Abbey of Monreale, near Palermo. The heart and the bones remained, by desire of the soldiers, in the camp. Later his son Philip (de Hainault) having carried them and those of his brother, Tristan, into Italy, they were taken to Paris in 1271. On March 21 of that year the bones, reduced to ashes, were deposited temporarily in Notre Dame, where they were presently borne to the Abbey of St. Denis. The heart, which was placed in a leaden casket, was buried by the way where the bones were placed, seven in number, the subsequent caused a cross to be raised.

Charles of Anjou dying at Foggia, 1285, his heart was sent to Angers, while his body was entombed in San Gennaro, at Naples. His viscera remained in the Duomo at Foggia. Philip III. (de Hainault) died of pestilence at Perpignan Oct. 5, 1285. His body was buried at Narbonne. His bones were transferred to St. Denis. His heart was given by Philip IV. (de Beau) to the Dominicans of Paris.—London Notes and Queries.

Had to Creep.

"Why do you say 'I blushed creep over the face of the fair plaintiff?'" asks the editor.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours. A sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also a convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects invariably of bold water and acid urine, and is equally, or better, effective following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-root is well realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. It is sold in a medicine bottle and has the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail.

Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake that remember the name, Swamp-root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Father of Twenty.

Owingsville, Ky., March 27.—There is certainly no thought of race suicide in the family of William Goidy, a farmer, who lives in the county, three miles east of here. His youngest child has just been born to Goidy and his wife, and they are as proud of this one as they were of the first. Goidy has been twice married. His first wife was the mother of twelve children, while the second life is the mother of eight—four boys and four girls. Most of them are living at home. This is believed to be the largest family in Kentucky.

There is not a pair of twins among the number.

Swope Ends His Life.

Hawesville, Ky., March 7.—Clarence Swope, one of the most popular young men of the county, committed suicide today by blowing one hand and the side of his head off with a revolver. He was a brother of James Swope, who hanged himself to a raft in a barn while brooding over the death of his father, who was killed in a pistol duel.

Costliest Building in the Country.

Which is the costliest building in America? Would you answer offhand the New York state capitol at Albany? Hardly. Your thoughts would turn more likely to the national capitol at Washington or to the Congressional library. But the New York state capitol cost more than the national capitol and the library of congress together. The Empire State capitol cost $24,000,000, while the one at Washington, two acres larger, cost only $12,000,000 and the Congressional library only $7,000,000. Our Empire State capitol cost as much as the nation paid for all Florida and the Philippines combined.—Gilson Willets in Leslie's Weekly.

The Art of Forgetting.

"I have heard men and women say, 'I could be happy now if I could only forget the past.' It is kind to yourself and 'forget it.' Do not try to do so in a labored, strenuous way, but gently suggest to yourself a dozen times a day that you are happy in the 'eternal now' and not burdened down with disagreeable thoughts of the past. In learning the 'art of forgetting' you will find the wisest means of remembering things worth knowing and thereby bring harmony, peace and contentment into your life."—M. J. Lorimer in Suggestions.

Followed Instructions.

A lady going from home for the day locked everything up carefully and for the grocer's benefit left a card on the back door.

"All out. Don't leave anything," it read.

On her return she found her house ransacked and all her cherished possessions gone. To the card on the door was added, "Thanks. We haven't left much."

ANNOUNCEMENT.

For Congress.

We are authorized to announce the HON. JOHN W. O'NEILL, of Nelson county, as candidate for Congress in the Fourth Congressional District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

A STEP BACKWARDS.

The News agrees with Councilman Reid in his opinion that the action of the City Council in throwing down his motion to prohibit the running at large of stock in Cloverport is a step backward. The stock in question is cows. Just plain, old nely cows that forage about our beautiful little city day and night, on street and on sidewalk, in our front yard and in our back yard, in our church yards and in our school yards. It is disgusting, yes, almost intolerable to think of Cloverport with her 3000 inhabitants, with her factories booming and her business growing to have cows running at large. Why not burn up the city charter, tear down the Commercial Club, plow up the streets and turn the hows out to root up the side-walks? What is the use to try to advance? Let us go back into our primitive state, pile on wood upon the pavements, plant our potatoes in the streets, get a bowie knife and dagger and go out after our living as our forefathers did.

It is an outrage upon the citizens of Cloverport to have cows running at large as they do now. If the City Council will not give us our rights without force, let us use force. We must have a stocklaw.

Did you get fooled very badly?

A bright face makes easy work.

Breckenridge county ought to have a
"Home Coming Day."

The man who takes life seriously is generally in serious health.

"A beautiful little city." That's what everybody says of Cloverport. 'Tis true, too.

The weather man tells us we will have stormy weather on Easter Sunday.

The petty jealousies among the county officials at Hardinsburg is disgusting.

Mr. Andrew Carnegie is in favor of the spelling reform. That ought to settle it.

The man without a purpose is like the man without a wife—he has nothing to work for.

The old rule of eight hours sleep,
eight hours play and eight hours work
don't apply to editors.

District Attorney William Travers
Jerome of New York, is another American idol that has fallen.

The distinguishing difference between John D. Rockefeller and other American citizens is just a billion dollars.

Judge Henry says that every man must do his assigned work on the roads or answer for it in the court-house.

The Fiscal court ought to be good to Cloverport and give her the man
she wants for district road supervisor
—Chas. Bohler is the man.

Look at the label on your paper. It will tell its own story and it always has. We know you will do the right thing if it tells the wrong story.

Prof. H. K. Taylor speaks here tomorrow night. Every citizen in town should hear him. Prof. Taylor is an instructive as well as interesting speaker.

The extra session of the Legislature cost the State $15,000. This is said to be about ten per cent. of revenue derived from the rectifiers under the provisions of the new bill.

Our friend, Sterett, down at Haver-ville, delight in taking a fall out of poor old Cloverport and his latest followers: "Cloverport now looks nothing of what Metropolitan. It has a case of small pox."

How do you like the magazine section we give you every week? We think it is fine—maybe you do too, but have you told me so? It's a big lot of trouble to us this extra section, and we would like to know if our subscribers appreciate it. Do you?

May 5 is but a month ahead. On this day every legal voter in the three Cloverport districts will be called upon to do his duty toward God and man.
What step are you going to take? Will you invite a course to sleep down upon your town and children and you, or will you help by your vote to keep Cloverport free from it?

You can learn a hundred per cent.
better if you will read a little paper called the "Farm Journal" published at Philadelphia. Nearly every body has heard of it. And you will know a lot more about your home folks by reading the News. Then why not send us a dollar bill and have both of these papers sent to you, the Journal for five years and the News, one year—and it is all for a dollar.

That is a pretty strong petition sent up from this town to the Fiscal court.
The people are very much in earnest in this matter and if their wishes are not granted there'll be something doing when the next election comes around.
There is no politics in this matter. It is an uprising of the people and a demand for their rights. It's purely a matter of business and we hope the Fiscal court will see it in this light and hearken to the voice of the people.

Cow Bells Will Still Ring

City Council met Monday night at its regular meeting. The general running business was transacted. Mayor Harris called for new laws. Councilman
L. T. Reid moved the body to pass an ordinance prohibiting the running at large of stock in the city limits, explaining the city's right to do so under recent Legislative ruling. After an hour discussion Councilman Barry secured the motion. The vote was taken, the motion defeated. Reid and Barry voted for it and McCracken, Hook, O'
Connell, and Fitch against it.

Reid was diagnosed at the ordinance not passing, stating it was a step backwards in Cloverport's history to permit the ordinance mentioned. He said he knew of no town in the United States of Cloverport's size that did not have a stock law. Members of the council opposing the measure claimed that they could not get their "walk" if Reid's motion was put into force.

Mayor Harris instructed the city committee to look into the matter of securing rock to be crushed for use on the road leading into the city from the batterfield place and also the road from the old "Short Line" into town. The city's cruiser will be put into service and the city intends to spend several hundred dollars on these two roads.
Reid brought this matter before the council and all favored it. It was suggested that rock be bought of Mayor Harris' crusher, however, he did not consider that matter, explaining that he thought it would be cheaper for the city to crush its own rock since it owned a crusher.

Taxable Property Is $3,983,183.

Hardinsburg, Ky., April 3.—County Clerk Wm. F. Hook has completed the assessment book for 1906. It shows the total amount of taxable property in the county to be $3,983,183. This is an increase of the assessment for last year of $18,314. The Hardinsburg Magisterial district shows a total assessment of $1,041,988, the largest in the county. The Cloverport district is the next largest.

Fiscal Court Convened.

Hardinsburg, Ky., April 3.—The Fiscal Court convened Tuesday, with all the magistrates present and Judge Moorman presiding. The road question will occupy a large portion of the attention of the court of this session.

A. S. of E. Meets At Hardinsburg

Hardinsburg, Ky., April 3.—The Breckenridge county Society of Equity met at the Court House Monday afternoon with President G. B. Wilson in the chair. On motion the following committee on credentials were appointed via Smith Waggoner, Ben T. Miller and W. A. Hallman, which reported two local unions represented by accredited delegates.

The warehouse committee then made its report through its chairman Silas Miller. The report showed $1000 of stock subscribed to erect the building. The committee was continued, but the meeting voted not to build the warehouse this year. The Secretary Joel H.
Pile reported that 5 of 13 dr. tobacco growers of the county had signed an agreement to plant more than 2½ cups of tobacco to the hand. This is a very gratifying report and ought to encourage the farmers much. Some retail business was then disposed of and the convention adjourned until the next regular meeting in July.

MANY CONVERSIONS

AT HARDINSBURG.

Hardinsburg, Ky., April 3.—The revival at the M. E. Church South is still in progress and interest is probably greater now than at any time since it commenced. Many conversions have taken place and much good is being done.
Bro. Newsum preaches strong practical convincing sermons which have great effect. The meeting may continue until Sunday.

IS THERE A

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER?

(Providence Journal.)

Mr. Rockefeller must be found, if only to refute the theory of certain scribes that such a man has never existed. The arguments by which this cynical proposition is backed are not without an air of plausibility likely to mislead even the most discerning.
The man is said to be a Jew, a reformer and a philanthropist. It is asserted that he is not a real person,
but merely a figment of the imagination,
a commercial fiction corresponding to the John Doe of legal phraseology.

Was, it is asked, has ever seen John D. Rockefeller, talked with him, taken the hand? Even in the voluminous records of Lawson, who penetrates the innermost recesses of the liar where the catfish hides, he is found as a name.
The explorer heard of him, much as the traveler in Tibet heard of the Great Glam, a figure about, portentious, invisible.

There have been gifts of money it is true; various things have been done in his name. But these, we are told, are the work of the great master of disguise, diverting attention from their deep and dark scheme by concentrating the public gaze of a faded figure,
an imaginary man "higher up."
Now, threatened with exposure,
they are trying to conceal their deception by making their lay figure mysteriously "disappear." Wherever way truth lies, the public is entitled to know it. The mystery of John D. Rockefeller must be cleared up.

George Douglas, a negro, charged with house breaking and stealing, was tried in Police court Monday and held over to May grand jury with bond of $250. Douglas is alleged to have broken in F. Fraizer's store on or about Oct.
31, 1905, and to have taken clothing.
The charge was not altogether substantiated by the witnesses in the case but by Douglas, who convinced himself on cross examination. He seemed to be relating an imaginary story which did not work well under the pressure of County Attorney's Brown's questions. Douglas said that it took a day's time for him and another man to walk two squares.

THE LAWHERN SENSATION.

The marital trouble which have existed for some time between Mr.
Joseph Sapp and his wife, and which have been generally known throughout the town, came to a climax Tuesday when an investigating board of blinded witnesses were called to decide the delicate point as to whether Rev. B. F. Lawhern, pastor of the Hawesville Methodist church, was the obstacle between the husband and wife, each being members of his congregation.

This investigating committee was asked for and demanded by the minister, who was charged by Mr. Sapp on the streets of maintaining relations with Mrs. Sapp unbecomingly a minister of the gospel. The committee was composed of Revs. T. M. Thomas and J. L. Reid, of Owensboro; J. T. Rushing, of Henderson, and B. M. Corrie of Cloverport. In addition there was present at the investigation, the local official board of the church as follows:
W. S. Thomas, Treasurer, and Stewards B. H. Morelock, Joseph Sapp, J. C. Epiphy, Geo. Wilson and Simms Thomas.

The investigation was conducted at the home of Mr. W. H. Williams, who finally adhered to this church,
and members of the local press were invited in advance to be present.

Former Presiding Elder J. T. Kuehnagel acted as Chairman, and after a talk abounding in their sentiment and stating the purpose of the gathering, prayer was offered and the investigation commenced.

Being the accused, Mr. Sapp was called upon for the initial statement. Never did man talk with more serious earnestness than he. Mr. Sapp told in detail of all the trouble which has existed between him and his wife. The statement was made by him that one Rev. J. T. Newsum, a minister who held a series of meetings both in Haver-ville and Cloverport a year ago, was the first to cast a shadow in his home.

Rev. Mr. Lawhern, he said, came into the scene, and a few weeks ago in his ministerial capacity, undertook to reconcile matters and restore the old status of love and a cottage. This Sapp consented to and encouraged him in the effort. Sapp alleged that Lawhern was not content with this, but to their place of business where she was frequently to be found, as was her frequent visits to the paragon to see the minister, aroused his suspicions, and he prayed for a revelation as to the truth of said matter. He said, he attended to his wife and to their place of business where she was frequently to be found, as was her fre-

MOST BEAUTIFUL WOMAN.

MRS. WALTER FARWELL OF CHICAGO AND WASHINGTON IS HOLDING THE HONOR.

Is Daughter of the Wife of Stephen A. Douglass, Herself a Famous Belle—Husband's Father Began Life a Poor Boy.

Who is the most beautiful woman in America? This was the question recently propounded in connection with the preparation of a Beauty Book which was designed to sell at something like twenty-five dollars per copy. It was intended to present in the extensive volume portraits of the handsomest women in each of the principal American cities but one member of the fair sex was to be selected as preeminently the most beautiful creature in Miss Columbia's domain.

Naturally there was great rivalry for the honor and the persons who sat in judgment upon the photographs of beautiful women which were submitted in the contest had rather difficult time to reach a decision. Finally, the choice fell upon Mrs. Walter Farwell of Washington, D. C. and Chicago who was a bride of but a few months when the mooted question was decided in her favor. In arriving at a decision the judges studied the features of each subject critically just as a per-

Miss Mildred Williams was a great belle from the very day that she made her first formal bow to the social world. To be sure she had no dowry but her own marvellous beauty but she made what the gossips pronounced a "great catch" when she married Walter Farwell of Chicago, one of the most prominent young millionaires of the Windy City.

Started with $10 Capital.

Young Farwell who started in life as a poor boy at Painted Post, New York, later removing to Illinois and eventually going to Chicago on a load of wheat with but $10 in his pocket. He secured employment in the country clerk's office; later became partner of a bank and finally established with his brother the great dry goods business which to this day causes the name of Farwell to be well known in mercantile circles. In 1887 the Farwell brothers built the Texas State Capitol receiving in payment therefor more than 3,000,000 acres of land. Much of this land they sold but considerable holdings of it went to form a gigantic ranch home in the Texas Panhandle and helped materially to swell the Farwell fortune.

Both of Ex-Senator Farwell's daughters married men well known to the public so that the beautiful Mrs. Walter Farwell has two very prominent sisters-in-law. One is Mrs. Reginald De Koven, wife of the well known com-

FAIRBANKS IS ACTIVE.

WORKING TO SECURE PLEDGES FOR THE PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION IN 1908.

Is Sure of Indiana Delegation—Is Also Counting on Illinois, and Thinks Chances Good in Ohio—At Work in South.

Vice-President Fairbanks is 6 feet, 3 inches in height, the tallest man in the Senate. He is also looming up pretty tall as a presidential candidate for 1908.

Unless other candidates bestir themselves, Mr. Fairbanks will at no distant day have a sufficient number of delegates pledged to make him the most formidable candidate for the nomination. Mr. Fairbanks has had the Presidential bid in his bonnet for many years. He was a great favorite of President McKinley, and many persons believe that Mr. McKinley desired to see Mr. Fairbanks succeed him in the Presidential chair.

There have recently been long conferences between Indiana politicians, Mr. Fairbanks, and his friends, and there is good reason to believe that a great deal has been accomplished in the way of perfecting the organization formed for the purpose of securing the Republican nomination for Indiana's son two years hence.

Beveridge is in Line.

Everything is said to be lovely for Mr. Fairbanks in Indiana. He has cleaned up the opposing faction in the Republican party there, headed by the youthful Senator Beveridge, who is determined to have responded to reality to the treatment applied that he now gives three cheers every time the name of Fairbanks is mentioned in his presence. Senator Beveridge is no longer in a position to hamper the progress of the Fairbanks' boom in Indiana. In the factious fight over the State chairmanship, Mr. Beveridge suffered an ignominious rout, and even if he does not train with Mr. Fairbanks in the future, he will not antagonize him.

Following Senator Hanna's Methods.

In his campaign to secure delegates for William McKinley in 1896, Marcus A. Hanna began his operations in the South. He had securely nailed down that section before the representatives of other candidates had begun to work. Mr. Hanna enlisted in the cause a number of young men, who went out looking for delegates and got them. Mr. Fairbanks knows something about the methods of Mr. Hanna, and his representatives are now treating with leading party men in the South. While the Republican party in the South is short on votes on election day, it is long on delegates in the national convention. This fact is keenly appreciated by Mr. Fairbanks.

Chances in Illinois.

The Vice-President is certain of Indiana's delegates, and he is counting upon Illinois. He has four men in the hands of Charles G. Dawes, former Controller of the Currency, one of Mr. Hanna's "young men" in the pre-convention campaign made in the interest of the candidacy of Mr. McKinley. Fairbanks had strong and influential friends in Illinois and his chances of securing the delegation from that State are probably better than those of any other man who has been mentioned for the Presidential nomination, with the exception of Speaker Cannon. Mr. Dawes is understood to be the western manager of the Fairbanks boom. At least, such a report was circulated recently, and it has never been denied.

The Russian Easter.

Easter Day is set apart for visiting in Russia. The men go to each other's houses in the morning and introduce themselves by saying, "Jesus Christ is risen." The answer is, "Yes, He is risen." The people then embrace, give each other eggs, and drink a great deal. They present a colored red egg to the priest of the parish on Easter morning. The common people carry one of these red eggs in their hands upon Easter Day, and three or four days after they use it in token of the Resurrection, whereof they rejoice.

Oriental Egg Gambles.

Hyde in his description of Oriental sports, tells of one with eggs among the Christians of Mesopotamia on Easter Day, and forty days afterward. The sport consists in striking their eggs one against another, and the egg that first breaks is won by the owner of the one that struck it. Immediately another egg is pitted against the winning egg, and so on till the last egg wins all the others, which their respective owners shall before have won.

The great majority of Italian immigrants come from the southern provinces, mainly Sicily and Calabria. They are farm bred.

A DARKY CHRISTENING.

WEIRD SCENE AMONG THE SOUTHERN COLORED BAPTISTS—FEET WASHING.

Third Letter of Accounts of Trip into the Sunny Southland—Interesting Visits to Jacksonville, Savannah and Richmond.

The first Sunday we spent in Enslens we drove to Lake Gracie, just in the rear of the hotel grounds, to witness the Baptist colored inauguration. It was a perfect June morning, with settings of pure gold. It did not seem possible that it was windy March at least. The orange groves reached down to the very edge of the lake, which lay placid, like a mirror. Several of the guests rowed across from the hotel to witness the ceremony. Presently the preacher, followed by his candidates and flock, came through the woods singing one of their wild refrains. A few words from the Good Book, a prayer, all kneeling, and then an exhortation delivered with much vigor. The baptism was quietly performed with the exception of the case of one of the sister candidates who felt so happy that two men were obliged to carry her out of the water. In the evening we all drove to Egypt. The colored settlement, and I never in my life attended such a service. It was the first Sunday in March, which is a high day in the church—The Primitive Baptist. The church building is a little wooden structure with bare benches along each side and a rough table in front of a box of a pulpit. When we entered, a prayer meeting was being held. As many of the native congregation cannot read, the hymns are lined, two lines at a time—and such strange music I never heard. They don't seem to sing the words; it is just a loud monotonous refrain, and was perfectly deafening in that small building. The prayers were mostly ejaculations to the Lord, accompanied with clapping of hands and loud exclamations from all the brothers and sisters. The sermon was the most rambling discourse imaginable, beginning with Genesis and ending in Revelation, unconquered with various portions of fate, arms and legs. Then the darkness descended and yelled at the top of their voices and during all of which one of the sisters got "happy" and surged over into another seat. Several hundred sisters held her until she became quiet. Then the collection was taken up, each one going up in racket. Finally the table was taken to the table and laying his money on

INDIA'S RICHEST POTENTATE.

He Owns a Carpet Made of Precious Gems and Diamonds and Rubies by the Bushel.

During the stay of the Prince and Princess of Wales in India they will undoubtedly meet and be entertained by a personage who has every reason to be regarded as the richest man in the Orient, if not in the whole world. This is the Galkwar (or Rajah) of Baroda, a potentate who will illustrate the value of this vast line concerning the "Barbaric pearl and gold" which the "gorgeous East" showers on its kings. No doubt, in point of annual income, there are richer men—Mr. John D. Rockefeller, for instance—but from the standpoint of personal possessions and the value of his property, he probably has no rival in the world.

When he came to the throne some twenty-five years ago the present ruler of Baroda found stored in the vaults of his palace wealth so colossal that a description of it outdoes the "Arabian Nights" itself. Certainly Aladdin never thought of a carpet of jewels, such as the Galkwar possesses. To say that there is nothing like it in the world is only feebly to describe its glories, which can be better indicated by the statement that it is about four yards square and composed of ropes of rubies, diamonds and pearls, woven into a regular carpet well-defined pattern and border. Thousands of dollars' worth of jewels, every one of the finest quality, went to make up this wondrous carpet, the product of three years' work by skilled artists and jewel-setters.

Now, if the Galkwar of Baroda were only moderately wealthy, this monarch of carpets would doubtless occupy the place of honor in his palace. But as he possesses jewels enough to set up a dozen ordinary monarchs the jeweled tapestry occupies an odd corner, and is shown to visitors as merely by one of the treasures of the palace.

Another note of curiosity, but far more valuable, is the Galkwar's diamond necklace, a trinket the value of which several times makes a man a millionaire. This necklace is the most magnificent in existence. And even the honor of possessing the second is denied to the rest of the world, for that also is amongst the Galkwar's family jewels, being worn by his wife, who is besides, dowered with brooches, bracelets, rings and other ornaments, the value of which is computed in millions of dollars.

Another notable ornament worn by the Galkwar is a collar made of five hundred diamonds of the purest water, which includes in its glittering rows the famous "Star of the South," the fourth largest diamond in the world.

Such a dazzling collection—such a welter of jewels—was, needless to say, not made in a single lifetime. For centuries the Galkwar's ancestors have been accumulating their treasures, until to-day the jewels alone could be measured in bushels. As for the rest, there are pictures in bronzes and statuary to the value of several millions of money.

A royal procession in Baroda is worth going many miles to see. Horses and elephants, all splendidly caparisoned and blazing with gems, lead the way; but the cynosure of all eyes is the Galkwar, himself, who, by his personality, but also by reason of the stupendous wealth represented by the jewels with which he adorns himself.

He is, perhaps, the one man in the world who could wear that mammoth amongst gems, the great Premier Diamond, without incongruity.

Sleeping Car Acquaintances.

Representative Smith of Maryland is the author of a good story a few days ago in front of the White House talking to two Secret Service men, when a boy came dashing out of the Executive mansion and said to him: "Who's that?" queried the Congressman. "That's Archibald Roosevelt," he was informed.

A moment later another youngster came through the same door and Mr. Smith repeated his question. "That's Kermit," said one of the guards.

Just then a third boy came swirling along on roller skates.

"Guess that's another one of the Roosevelts," suggested the man from Maryland.

"Yes," was the answer, "That's Quigley."

"By gum," commented Mr. Smith, "they've all got names like sleeping cars. I feel just as if I were standing on the platform at home waiting for the limited express shoot by."

was attired in a white and gray cotton mother Hubbard gown tied around the waist with a white apron; around her neck she wore a black fur collar and on her head a very broad, trimmed black hat turned up on one side in a jaunty manner. This colored lady, weighing 285 pounds, as I was told, proceeded to set the communion table. From his chair in the pulpit, the minister called out, "Let us know, sister, Washing Their Feet.

Then came the "foot washing." Two tencent basins were placed on a table; the men and women took off their shoes and stockings; the preacher washed the first sister's feet, wiping them with the towel which was wringed around his waist; then passed the basin and towel to the elder, who washed the next one's feet, and so on until all were done. Aunt Savannah then began a like ceremony on the sister's side of the church; and all the time the dreadful singing, shouting, clapping of hands, stamping of washed and unwashed feet, continued in a deafening racket. Finally the table was taken to the table and laying his money on

Young Plants

Every farmer knows that some plants grow better than others. Soil may be the same and seed may seem the same but some plants are weak and others strong.

And that's the way with children. They are like young plants. Same food, same home, same care but some grow big and strong while others stay small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion offers an easy way out of the difficulty. Child weakness often means starvation, not because of lack of food, but because the food does not feed.

Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength.

Whatever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—Scott's Emulsion seems to find it and set the matter right.

ST. LOUIS LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Reported By Evans-Snyder-Buel Co., Live Stock Commission Agent.

Special to the News.—National Stock Yards, Ill., March 28th. Receipts were very light here the fore part of the week, in fact Monday's receipts were the lightest for several months past. The impassible condition of the country roads is responsible for a great part of the falling off in receipts. The market, while some lower than to-day week ago, is steady with the close of last week and in some cases some higher. Some decent kind of steers sold from $4.00 to $4.50, with few good enough to bring over these prices.

A good many fair to good beef cows sold from $3.25 to $4.50. Good huffer snuff sources. Not enough coming to supply the demand. The most of the offerings were the $3.75 to $4.25 kind; not very many good enough to bring over $4.40. The market is considerably lower than a week ago. Canners and cutters slow sale. The bottom has dropped out of the wool calf market. Good to choice wools selling from $5.00 to $6.00 per cut. Absolutely nothing doing in the stocker and feeder line worth mentioning. There is some inquiry for good quality steers.

As in the case of cattle, Monday's hog ran was the lightest for several months and the run since has not been up to the standard. Very little change has been noted in prices the past week and the market today is just about what it was a week ago.—top $6.50 bulk of sale $6.25 to $6.45.

Several loads of western lambs sold this week around $6.15 and some clipped western weathers at $5.40. Receipts light and include few good native sheep for which there is a good demand.

Evans-Snyder-Buel Co.

No Selection.

The Legislature adjourned without selecting representative for the Hall of Fame in Washington.

The bill settling on Henry Clay and William Gobel got no further than the House. Sentiment as to who should be the representatives from this State was almost as varied as the members themselves.

REPORT.

The Aid and Missionary societies of the Presbyterian Church held the first meeting of the ecclesiastical and fiscal years 1906, at Mr. Caspin's when a full report was given of last years work. The number of members enrolled 11.

The monthly collection of Missions $11.25. The receipts of money taken in by Aid $18.81.

At the last meeting the officer for the ensuing year were elected and it was unanimously voted to reorganize. The Secretary was instructed to draft constitution and by laws which have been read and adopted.

This society shall hereafter, be known as the Phoenix, a name suggested by Mrs. Bohon, secretary, of the joint societies of the Louisville Presbyterian.

B. S. Wilson was appointed delegate to represent Breckenridge county at the Green River Tobacco association to be held at Owensboro April 5.

The local court house is to have a handsome new fence placed around it in a few days. The city Council bought the fence from the Stewart Iron Works, Cincinnati. The cost of fence, setting, etc., will amount to about $30. The pattern is similar to that of the fence around the Chas. May property.

The Rev. B. M. Currie preached a forceful sermon Sunday morning. His theme being "Get right within thyself." In the evening he preached a sermon on temperance to one of the largest crowds that has assembled in the city for sometime. Rev. Currie stated at the beginning of the local option campaign that he would not bring the question up in the pulpit for discussion only at one time and then he would present a temperance sermon. There will probably be no better talk delivered in the campaign than that of Rev. Currie's last Sunday night.

DR. FOOT'S LETTER CONTINUED.

Forenoon session Feb. 28 "The Forest service" - with special reference to the farmers," by O. W. Price, U. S. Dept. Agriculture, Washington. This subject is of vast importance at this time and it is a great pity that the farmers and mill men, who are so rapidly clearing the timber from the land, could not be instructed some and made to stop to think a little. As a matter of fact when land grows timber in stead of corn or wheat, then timber is a crop.

Of course, a tree that is planted or saplings up this year cannot be marketed next year or in five years. But we will deny the fact that the land planted in fast growing trees of the lumber kind and protected for 25 or 30 years would not return a greater profit to the owner than an acre that had been reforested in grass and grain. Who knows what an acre of timber, now being in 30 years, will give him if that acre was planted in trees as close as trees would thrive, and left to grow for 30 years, or if the small straight oak, poplar and walnut that is now growing was pruned up and the undergrowth cleared out to give it a chance one would be astonished at the rapid growth that the young trees would make.

Timber has doubled and tripled in value in the last 20 years, and what other crop can be said of. Of course when timber is grown it is a tree, and it is a tree of 15 to 24 inches, and begins to show signs of decay, as is the case with our red oaks, such trees should be carefully felled, and removed to the saw. Care being taken not to damage the thrifty young trees. I met an old gentleman who told me that he had 100 acres of timber that he had taken an average of $10 an acre from for the last ten years, and he would be expected to continue taking a $10 crop from each acre yearly for generations to come as he had been careful to cut such as had come to maturity or showed signs of decay, or in other words, such only as needed to be removed. Mr. L. L. Doran of Ansonia, Ky., told of a tree which he had cut 22 years ago, that he has just taken ten 10 ft saw logs has 12 to 18 inches in diameter. This tree, I think he said was of the catalpa species. Who can tell what timber is going to be worth in a quarter of a century from now? Prices are now being realized and our forests are rapidly being exterminated. Many of us plant a tree occasionally here and there in the permanent fence rows and live to see it bring perhaps many dollars. Why not allow the rough land at least to continue to bring timber, and when you do clear a tree, see to it that it falls in a clear place, and does not injure the seedlings. If this country is to any degree the preservation of our forests the writer will be glad that he reports it.

"Soil Fertility," by Alva Agos, Worcester, Ohio. This speaker evidently knows what he talked about, and I am only sorry that I am unable to give it to you as I heard it. The main thought, however, in a nutshell is as follows:

Nature never made mistakes or failed to provide for man, year from the day Adam took charge of that orchard, to the day when this old world gave up to science and soil. Soil fertility depends of several mineral and vegetable constituents, but mainly on three of them. Nitrogen, Potash and Phosphorus.

As soil to be fertile must be well supplied, then with Nitrogen, Potash and Phosphorus. A plant to live and thrive, must have these elements to feed on.

The Nitrogen in the soil is stored in the surface, say in the upper 6 or 8 inches. The Nitrogen in the soil is stored in the surface, say in the upper 6 or 8 inches. The Nitrogen in the soil is stored in the surface, say in the upper 6 or 8 inches.

This is done, the speaker argued, not by the use of the sub soiler to loosen up the clay and bring it nearer the surface, for you do not want the clay near the surface, the soil plow should be let alone, do not disturb the clay. We can unlock it, loosen it up and make its Potash and Phosphorus available more easily and cheaply by plowing the soil with the bacteria that feed upon these elements. Barnyard manure enriches the soil because it is alive with these bacteria. (Nitrogen fixing bacteria) and when applied to the land they at once begin the search for Potash and Phosphorus and act on it, a way that it makes these

INJURED BY BITCHING SCALP

Eczema Broke Out Also on Hands and Limbs - Suffering Intense - Doctors Said Too Old to Be Cured - An Old Soldier of 80 Years Declares:

"CUTICURA TREATMENT IS A BLESSING"

"At all times and to all people I am willing to testify to the merits of Cuticura. It saved me from worse than the tortures of hell, about the year 1900, with itching on my scalp and temples, and afterwards it commenced to break out on my hands. Then it broke out on my limbs. I was advised to use salt and water, which I did, to no effect. I then went to a Surgeon, who commenced treating me with a wash of borax. This treatment did me no good, but rather aggravated the disease. I then told him I would go and see a physician in Erie. The reply was that I could get anywhere, but a case of eczema like mine could not be cured. I was too old (80). I was in an eminent doctor in the city of Erie and he told me that he had cured many like results. I had read of the Cuticura Remedies often. I was strongly tempted to give them a trial, so I sent for the Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent and continued taking the Resolvent and using the Cuticura Soap, stopping it to take the pills. I was now getting better. I took two baths a day, the other at night, let the itching stop. I used the Ointment with great effect after washing in warm water. I am now cured."

"The Cuticura treatment is a blessing and should be used by every one who has itching of the skin. I can't say any more, and thank God that He has given the world such a curative. You can use the Cuticura as you please. A very much recommended man, Wm. H. Gray, 3303 Mt. Vernon St., Philadelphia, Pa., August 2, 1905."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for every form of Eczema, Itch, Skin Disease, etc., by Dr. J. C. Williams, of Philadelphia, Pa., who has cured thousands of cases of Eczema, Itch, Skin Disease, etc., by Dr. J. C. Williams, of Philadelphia, Pa., who has cured thousands of cases of Eczema, Itch, Skin Disease, etc.

elements soluble and therefore available for plants. Leguminous plants as clover peas etc., enrich the soil. They take boron and are growing places so to speak for these bacteria and when land grows these legumes their roots strike into the clay and these little workers to the root. Things, therefore, are not so different from what they have always been. We know that legumes are our main restorers aside from stable manure, and now we know that they all do good because of the living organisms they contain, your great grandmother knew that a small quantity of soil mixed with a pale greenish mud, was a good soil. A full cluster in a few days, but why this is was a matter that "Granny" cared not to know. I will not dispute with "Granny" about it, but will say to you, no bacteria, no sour milk, no bacteria, no cabbage, no never. The speaker thought the best and quickest way to restore land that is badly run down and too poor to grow clover, and with little stable manure is as follows: Break thoroughly as soon as ground works well in spring use 75 pounds of bone, and drag until good. Broadcast seed, and drag a barrel of cowpots to the acre using say 150 pounds good commercial fertilizer. Let this crop of peas mature when they can be harvested or fed down with hogs. Then cut the land thoroughly with a disk harrow and seed to rye. He advises the disk harrow because it chops up the vines and leaves them on the surface which he says will enrich faster than if you turn them under and leave no mulch on top to protect against the winter rains. Barrow the rye thoroughly in April or sooner, if ground is dry enough, using a sharp iron tooth barrow. Cut the land thoroughly if you destroy half of the rye, then seed to clover and you will grow a fine crop and your land will be greatly improved. His main point is to break the land with a plow as seldom as possible and leave all litter and manure on the surface instead of plowing it under. Finally remember that fertility can hardly be maintained without the farm stock fairly well stocked, and the manure carefully saved and returned to the soil.

Corn Growing, by Prof. P. G. Holden, Ames, Iowa. Iowa is a great corn state because the soil and climate are conducive to the best results, and because the farmers make corn growing a specialty. But Iowa has increased yield 35 in the last five years by keeping Prof. P. G. Holden, of her State College, at Ames.

This increase has not come from new methods of cultivation or time of planting, but from the selection of the seed. Prof. Holden reasons that way, corn planted 434 feet would put 2720 hills on an acre, and if 1 medium ear weighing 10 ounces was produced to each hill the yield would be a ton and a half per acre. He reckoned the average for the state was less than 30 lb per acre, therefore the yield was only 1 medium ear to the hill.

And that ear weighing less than 10 ounces. Careful and extensive observation revealed that most fields had 30 stalks in a hill but that many stalks were barren and many others grew only "nubbins" while some hills had no stalks at all (missing hills) one thing in particular impressed him that he was unable to account for; why an occasional hill would produce a large stock with a fine ear, and in 30 stalks in the same hill stood a "nubbin" on it. But stored the same age and standing together in a hill. This must be accounted for. He began his tests. The whole thing soon unfolded and was understood. It is this grain of corn with dead germ will fill to germinate. You get a missing hill from such corn. A grain of corn with a weak germ, comes up weak and grows a weak seedling stock, and generally brings no corn, or at most "nubbins."

While grain of corn that has a strong germ comes up strong and is healthy, grows vigorous, and brings an ear much longer and more perfect than weak germ stock. With the foregoing facts we reasoned that it was folly to plant corn with a dead or weak germ, and we devised a plan to test each ear that he proposed to plant. Select 100 ears or any other number you wish to plant. Lay them by side on a saw board or a glass case covered with a nail by the side of the ear at the end of row to prevent them becoming misplaced. Number each ear beginning at 1 and going on to the last. Now take ear No. 1, with the point of your pocket knife remove six grains from different rows, and from one of the other, after the faintest grains had been removed from the tips. These six grains thus removed will represent ear No. 1 and must be kept to correspond, that is separate from all others. A convenient way is to leave them at the end of the ear they were removed from. Now it is time to begin taking a sample grain from each ear that you propose to test. Next prepare a test box. A suitable one will be 1 ft long, 2 1/2 ft wide and 10 inches deep fill in four inches with wet sawdust, tamping it thoroughly. Spread over this sawdust a cotton cloth that exactly fits the box, having first marked the cloth "checker board fashion" into squares 2X2 inches, taking care to number each of these squares as you did the ears of corn. Next place the six grains of corn from ear No. 1, the No. 1 square of the test box, so until all the squares in your test box are filled, seeing that they all correspond, of course. Have a bag made that exactly fits your test box, put wet sawdust in it to a thickness of 4 inches press a layer of canvas over the corn and the test box to keep it from being displaced, and on this spread the bag of wet sawdust. Put this test box in a warm room and in about 5 days remove the bag of sawdust. Looking through the tobacco canvas you can see the fresh spots where a seedling is coming.

Check No. 1, which corresponds to ear No. 1, may show all grains with spots 1/4 an inch long. No. 2 may show no sign of rooting, so you will not plant ear No. 2. No. 3, 4 and throughout the entire box you will be able to note extra strong grains, such, very weak, and even dead germs, each will show exactly what to expect from its corresponding ear. Of course, you have arranged to have the rows of ear corn left in a safe place uninterrupted until this test is over. For on now return to select the ears for seed with strong germs and discard all that show up weakly or dead. This testing taking out worms and crows will insure against having missing hills, against having hills with one stalk in them, and its greatest good comes from planting seed with strong germs, ensuring against so many squalling and barren stalks.

Prof. Holden says the testing of your own seed and planting only vigorous stock will give much better results than sending North or South and bring in seed of doubtful or unknown vitality. But another advantage to "Prove all things, and hold fast to those that are good."

We held no evening session but accepted invitation to attend a "Banquet" given by the business men's association of Hannibal. Plenty to eat and plenty to drink, and a short recess for it to take effect, a half dozen or more recommended in Old Kentucky style, when we left the half feeling that it was good for brethren to come together.

THE THINGS

WE HAVE NOT.

It is funny how desirable the things we have not and others have seen to be. Still more queer is it the way we miss things we have forgotten we had until we lost them. I used to think the fellow that had a private car, an automobile, a large house, etc., was supremely happy. When I got the private car I rode in it about six times, then took the street car. I used my automobile most of the time last year chasing receivers, fraud orders and court summonses. The big mansion is so blamed big I have to get out a search warrant to find my gloves, and when my sweetheart (who is also my wife) and I sit together we feel as if we were in a large and sumptuous hotel. Mañana we have to take to the woods if we want to spend more than ten minutes together at one time, or else turn out the lights, tie a towel around the telephone and meet we are OUT. Talk about sweethearts, I don't know whether you and your husband have pulled together shoulder to shoulder, heart to heart, for ten or twelve years and then been separated a little while. That happens to be my fix just now. The strain has been too much for her this past year. Now she is away. If there is a large, more empty, vacant, miserable, howling wilderness of a vacuum void than this particular neighborhood, I hope something will fall into it and fill it quick. You can see the mile square of real estate, the bank, the home, automobiles, horses, cats and even the publishing company. If you will just give me back my everyday sweetheart, and no questions asked. The year of continuous fight, the fraud order, indictments and the rest of it, has turned a hair gray, but I think if this struggle for the "common" people (those who do not own trusts or even insurance companies) took HER, some one else would have to take my job. I don't believe I could hold it down longer. Don't make any mistake on that. Your side partner and worse half may seem slow, stupid and a lot of things, but if you come to the parting point I fear you will find too late that large part of the real sunshine of life was wrapped up in him or her after all. Better look a little closer and get a little closer while you can. No one knows to-morrow. — E. G. Lewis in his Woman's Magazine of St. Louis.

Will Interest Man.

Every person should know that good health is impossible if the kidneys are deranged. Foley's Kidney Cure will cure kidney and bladder disease in every form, and will build up and strengthen these organs so they will perform their function properly. No danger of Bright's disease or diabetes if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken in time. A. R. Fisher.

Senator George Slated.

Frankfort, Ky., March 31.—After the session, gossip is to the effect that State Senator Henry George, of Graves county, is slated for superintendent of the Confederate Home at Pewee Valley, to succeed W. O. Coleman. Senator George took a leading part during the session in the enactment of legislation for the benefit of the home and was at the head of the Senate committee which made an investigation and exoniated some of the present officials of a charge of irregularities.

NO MAN IS STRONGER THAN HIS STOMACH.

Get the greatest athlete, have dyspepsia and his muscles would soon fail. Physical strength is derived from food. If a man has insufficient food he loses strength. If he has no food he dies. Food is converted into energy through the stomach, liver and bowels. It depends on the strength of the stomach to what extent food eaten is digested and assimilated. Man can die of starvation who have abundant food to eat, when the stomach and its associate organs of digestion and nutrition do not perform their duty. Thus the stomach is really the vital organ of the body. If the stomach is weak, the body will be weak also, because it is upon the stomach the body relies for its strength. And as the body considered as a whole, is made up of its several members and organs, so the weakness of the body as a consequence of "weak" stomach will be distributed among the organs which compose the organism. The liver will be torpid and inactive, the liver to biliousness, the digestive system, feeble or irregular action of the circulation, dizziness, headache, neuralgia and kindred disturbances and so on.

Justin Parr, of Quebec, writes: "For easier my health began to fail, my head was, my eyes pained me, and my stomach. Chills all the time, while everything I ate would seem to be heavy like lead in my stomach. The doctors claimed that I had dyspepsia, but I felt no better. I decided to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and after taking the medicine, this brought me a bottle and found that I began to live better, and the treatment I took on flesh, my bowels normal, the digestive system strong, perfectly and I soon began to feel better. I can never cease to be grateful for what your medicine has done and I certainly give it highest praise." "I was troubled by a penny-grabbing doctor taking living in the medicine of Scrooge's medicines, recommended to me as good."

PAINS

AMERICAN WOMEN FIND RELIEF

The Case of Miss Irene Crosby is One of Thousands of Cures made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women realize that it is not the plan of nature that woman should suffer so severely.

Miss Irene Crosby

Thousands of American women, however, have found relief from all monthly suffering by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it is the most thorough female regulator known to medical science. It cures the condition which causes so much discomfort and robs these periods of their terrors.

Miss Irene Crosby, of 313 Charlton Street, East Newark, N. J., writes: "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a true friend to woman. It has been of great benefit to me, curing my irregular and painful periods when everything else had failed, and I gladly recommend it to other suffering women."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, bloating (or flatulency), displacement of organs, inflammation or ulceration, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, sold everywhere, for further free advice. She is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising women free of charge. Thousands have been cured by so doing.

NEW DOG LAW.

The dog law, which has passed both branches of the legislature and which will become effective by June, is quite comprehensive. The following are some of its provisions:

Every dog over four months old shall be taxed.

Every person who keeps or harbors a dog on his place, or allows it to be done, shall be considered the owner.

The assessor shall note the name, kind, color, age and sex in the assessor's books.

Elaborate provisions are made for providing for the loss of sheep and claims for damage shall be acted on by the fiscal court.

The owner of the dog shall be liable for damages done by dog, but if the persons bitten are upon the premises of the owner at night no damage shall be allowed.

All dogs listed for taxation shall be regarded as property and the owner may recover for all damages done to his dog.

Every person who owns or harbors a dog and fails to list it with the assessor, shall be fined ten dollars for each dog, and if he fails or refuses to pay the tax, he shall be fined $25 for each offense.

The sheriff and his deputies and the constable shall kill or caused to be killed, all dogs on which the tax is not paid and shall be allowed fifty cents for each dog killed.

Any person who shall put out poison upon his premises or elsewhere where the same may poison any dog shall be fined from $2 to $25 or put in jail for six months or both, at the discretion of the jury, and shall be liable for damages to the owner of the dog.

The tax is one dollar on each dog.

The law contains many provisions, but these are the most prominent.

Speedy End.

It is believed that all obstacles to harmony at Algiers have been removed and that the labor of the conference will come to a speedy end.

Nothing will relieve indigestion that is not a thorough digestant. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, and allows the stomach to rest—recuperate—grow strong again. A few doses of Kodol after meals will soon restore the stomach and digestive organs to a full performance of their functions naturally. Sold by all druggists.

Men Past Sixty in Danger.

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate gland. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Henry Barnett, Box Fort, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 91 years old." — A. B. Fisher.

Erecting Brick House.

Contractor James Lewis is renovating his dwelling on the hill and is making a brick house instead of a frame one. Mr. Lewis bought the brick in Henderson. It will probably be three months before the new home will be ready for occupancy.

Sells Farm.

Mr. John Squires has sold his farm near Hardinsburg, to Mr. Percy Leard of that city. Mr. Leard will not take possession until December 1. Mr. Squires will probably move into Hardinsburg with his family to reside. Mr. Leard has been connected for many years with the firm of B. F. Beard Co., but on account of ill health will take to farming.

Laugh at Fines.

Springfield, O., March 27.—Laughing openly in court at their light fines for rioting, the eight boys who were arrested by the soldiers some days ago during the riotousness, walked out of the Police Court to-day free. Judge Miller, when the rioters were arraigned before him, in speaking of the recommendation of the jury that the fine be only $1 on account of the youth of the accused, said:

"This matter is an outrage. I can do nothing but inflict the nominal fine of $1 as recommended by the jury. This jury was made up of leading business men and manufacturers and their recommendation is an outrage."

He then announced that he remitted the fines and costs. Many citizens are indignant at the farce.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 4, 1905.

TO SAVE NIAGARA.

Washington, March 27.—In submitting to the Senate and the House the report of the members of the International Waterways Commission regarding the preservation of Niagara Falls, President Roosevelt sent to-day a recommendation that a law be enacted along the lines of the recommendation of the report. The report of the commission has been published. The message of the President follows:

To the Senate and House of Representatives: I submit to you herewith the report of the American members of the International Waterways Commission regarding the preservation of Niagara Falls. I also submit to you certain letters from the Secretary of State and the Secretary of War, including memoranda showing what has been attempted by the Department of State in the effort to secure the preservation of the falls by treaty.

I earnestly recommend that Congress enact into law the suggestion of the American members of the International Waterways Commission for the preservation of Niagara Falls without waiting for the negotiation of a treaty. The law can be put in such form that it will lapse, say in three years, provided that during that time no international agreement has been reached. But in any event I hope that this nation will make it evident that it is doing all in its power to preserve the great scenic wonder, the existence of which, unharmed, should be a matter of pride to every dweller on this continent.

Caught Cold While Hunting a Gargler.

Mr. Wm. Thos. Lanagan, provincial constable at Chapple, Ontario, says: "I caught severe cold while hunting a burglar in the forest around last fall. Hearing of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I tried it, and after using two small bottles. I was completely cured." This remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds. It will loosen and relieve a severe cold in less time than by any other treatment and is a favorite where ever its superior excellence has become known. For sale by Short & Haynes, Cloverport.

RECTIFIERS ARE GETTING BULLY.

The rectifiers of Louisville and other Kentucky towns are in arms over the bill passed at the extra session of the Legislature, which imposes a tax of one and one-fourth cents per gallon on blended and rectified whiskeys, and many of them still insist that they will leave the State. The James Walsh Company, of Covington, has authorized the announcement that it would leave the State immediately, and would establish headquarters in Ohio. This is one of the largest concerns of its kind in Kentucky, and its loss will be felt in Covington and Kenton county.

Orders Test Made.

FROM OUR FRIEND GRANT ROBBINS.

Rocky Ford, Col., March 25.—Editor News, Dear Sir:—I will try to give you a description of the country here. Rocky Ford is a nice town of 3,500 inhabitants, 35 miles from Pueblo in the Arkansas valley and three miles from the Arkansas river. Am proud to say that this place has prohibition and I have seen less drunkenness here in one year than I have ever seen in the same time at any other place. We have good orchards of all denominations and splendid schools. The town is blessed with fine water and modern city improvements. Cost of living here is about the same as in the East. Laborers receive 15 to 17½ cents per hour for work on farms and in factories. Woman make from $2 to $6 per week. The sugar factory here has a grinding capacity of 10,000 bushels per day. In the last six months they have made about thirty million pounds of sugar.

Sugar beets and melons are the principal farm products. Very little corn is grown. While we are almost rootless in the summer time we can see snow on Pike's Peak, a hundred miles away.

I am satisfied here but I still think of my friends in Kentucky and would love to see them. Wishing you best success. I am,

Yours respectfully,
Grant Robbins, formerly of Clifton Mills, Ky.

NOT THE RIGHT FELLOW

Jim Ray, colored, alleged to have broken jail at Cloverport, Ky., January 3, where he was confined pending trial on a charge of selling whiskey in a local option district, was arrested by Patrolmen Connell and Tierney at Seventh and Green streets this afternoon, charged with being a fugitive from justice and a suspected felon. The prisoner claims his arrest is due to a mistake in identity.—Louisville Times.

FIRST RUSSIAN PAR- LIAMENT ELECTION.

St. Petersburg, March 29.—The first actual elections to the Russian National Parliament took place to-day, when twelve members of the Council of the Empire were chosen by a congress composed of representative associations of trade and industry throughout European Russia. There was no speech making. The members chosen are all well known men of affairs and of high standing in their respective communities. They are all Conservatives. Former Minister of Commerce, Timiriazef, who presided over the congress, was unanimously elected as one of the delegation to the Council of the Empire, and he undoubtedly is destined to be the leader of the Liberals in the upper chamber.

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of grippe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Eggleston of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, aiding the same with a double dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip." Sold by Short & Haynes.

Men or Cowards?

Dear Editor:—"A man's a man for a short" time was when Burns wrote this phrase. Is the generation degenerating, are we stepping backward not forward with the ever onward, upward march of time? Are we men or cowards, base ignoble cowards? Several months since there occurred in our quiet precincts a slaughter of innocents when "Fido" and "Queen" the cherished pets and playthings of a little boy and girl of our town fell the poisoned victims of some cowardly groveling method of venting anger. Again this week another slaughter taking in its sweep "Donnie" the innocent pet and plaything of an entire family beside a faithful cat and three other dogs the entire number being known in the community as perfectly harmless and inoffensive. Is this just, is this right? If you have a grudge against your neighbor, why not come out in the open—don't be a coward don't strike from behind the back. The world applauds a warrior while there is nothing more contemptible than a traitor. Shame on the man who, to get revenge on an enemy, spreads poison about in such a manner that innocent animals are slaughtered so that the revenge of a man or of a coward? Does a man go to battle in the dark where his threat are as likely to strike his bosom friend as to fall upon him for whom they were intended? If we are a law abiding community, let us do what ever we do in the open not hiding behind counters and other subterfuges but rather let us be men of honor, realizing that "Honor is not simply truthfulness it is truthfulness sparkling with the fire of unselfish personality; that a man without honor is as maligned in his equipment as an accosted knight without helmet."

Mrs. Robt. McEltholman,
Irvington, Ky., March 28.

Receive Complimentary Sketches.

Washington, March 29.—Two members of the Kentucky delegation, David H. Smith of the Fourth district and Otis M. James, of the First, the one a conciliator in congress, the other a debater, are the recipients of such complimentary sketches in the Washington Post as doubtless caused the gentlemen to blush when they read them, although their friends recognize the truth in the good things said of them.

Messrs. Lige and Larkin Gibson have returned from Arkansas for a short stay. They will return to locate. Their families will not accompany them until fall.

PROGRAM.

Breckenridge Association Fifth Sunday meeting will convene with the Glendene Baptist church on Friday afternoon April 27 at 2:30. The following program will be rendered:
